Curaçao is one of the five islands of the Netherlands Antilles in the Caribbean. It is located 40 miles off the coast of Venezuela, 42 miles east of Aruba, and 30 miles west of Bonaire, and is the largest of the five islands.

Breezes Curaçao Resort & Spa sits on 1500 feet of pure white sand, beside crystal clear waters that have beckoned Scuba divers from around the world. Even though the island is located just off the coast of Venezuela, it remains a largely undiscovered gem in the Caribbean. The resort is adjacent to a pristine Undersea National Park, so you'll feel like you've entered your own private sanctuary.

Scuba Diving is a breathtaking experience in Curaçao. It is known for its underwater paradise consisting of coral reefs and sponge formations with thousands of colorful tropical fish. The water is pleasant and the visibility is excellent. Curaçao has over forty dive sites, and many of the dive sites are accessible from beaches, which allows for a nice combination of beach time and shore-diving. Join us and see the undiscovered gem of the Caribbean sea for yourself!
